

Brick/ Masonry:

Masonry has many different forms, and is not limited to just brickwork , work can include other materials such as marble, granite, and limestone. No matter the type of material you are working with, an experienced installation is a must. We can redo your front patio, stoops, porches, flower boxes, retaining walls if you are looking to get long-lasting and attractive results.

Middle Village Construction and our professional contractors you can achieve exceptional and long lasting results for the construction, repair, or improvement of any structure that requires masonry work.